

COUNSELLOR JOB DESCRIPTION

The Counselors are responsible for the welfare of the campers while they are in LPC. They are in charge of creating a safe, enjoyable, learning environment as well as an atmosphere in which understanding and friendship can develop easily and naturally. They lead group activities, which will stimulate interest, a sense of responsibility, and the general development of each child. Counselors work both independently and as a team. Their job requires them to be fully available for the duration of camp and to support a vigorous daily schedule.

Qualities and Skills (existing or to aim for)

- An interest in community living
- An interest in working in an international environment.
- Awareness of and ability to manage one's own energy level
- The ability to communicate with campers and staff
- The ability to work constructively both alone and in a team.
- The ability to lead activities
- The ability to ask for and offer help as needed
- An awareness of health and safety issues
- Enthusiasm for working with children
- Open-mindedness and tolerance
- Flexibility and creativity
- An interest in learning new skills
- Teaching skills
- A readiness to support the structure and philosophy of the Luethi-Peterson Camps, Inc.